Anyone aged 8-15 is invited to come along to one of the clubs run by Holy Trinity Church. 12-15 year olds will enjoy the PLC (Power and Light Company) on a Friday evening, 7-9pm. That's in the church hall at Hailesland Place. For boys aged 8-11 there's the Adventurers Boys Club, 7-8.30pm on Fridays at Hailesland School. And the Adventurers Girls Club is on a Monday evening in the church hall, from 6.30-8pm.

Each of the clubs began again at the beginning of September, and welcomes new members to join them for an exciting session of activities.

All Aboard!

On Monday, August 31st, the Wester Hailes Education Centre (WHEC) took to the road on an open topped bus, accompanied by the WHEC Jazz Band. Roy Beavis, Deputy Principal explained: "We're having a campaign to publicise the adult day/evening classes.

"The band have done lots of concerts in Wester Hailes but this is the first time we have done something like this to promote ourselves. Also the basic idea was to keep it in the Festival Spirit."

Along with the thirteen strong band, and three teachers, were several 6th year students who handed out leaflets to the appreciative passers by.

Incidentally, the Youth Band is the very one which gave Tommy Smith his start, and listening to them it seems there is plenty of talent coming up behind.

For information on classes contact Beryl Holman or Ron Beasley, on 442 2201.

At the back of the W.H.E.C. a temporary unit has been set aside as an adult base where it is hoped residents will pop in, formulate the actual role of the base themselves and take over the running of it. Part of the hut is being used by the Neighbourhood English class and by a hand/machine knitting group.

ALL CHANGE AT THE P.S.G.

It's all change at the P.S.G! On August 25 a new committee was elected at the A.G.M., and a warm welcome is extended to the new chairperson Carla Cranston. More new faces include Jean Reilly, development worker, and four new creche workers, Tracy, Lynn, Susan and Carina. Susan and Carina have also just signed up for Hailes United Ladies Football Club. Let's hope they are as good on the football field as they are with the children.

The dayroom has also taken on a new lease of life. Committee members and users gave the room a lick of paint (see pic left) and the Wester Hailes Y.T.S. lent a hand fitting cupboards and shelves. But the biggest change of all was for creche worker Angela Johnston who married Andrew Brown on Saturday 29th August in St Nicholas Church. Warm congratulations to the young couple.
